

Friday, 30 October 2009

Paper	Page (s)	Headline/Summary
The Age www.theage.com.au	1	VCE dreaming, now for the test 47,000 students will sit the first of the VCE exams today.
	4	Indian police probe English language test scam Indian police are investigating a company that provides English language proficiency tests to Australian recruiters of international students.
	14 Letters	Maths a priority
The Australian www.theaustralian.com.au	3	Low expectations a road to failure Schools expect too little of their students and become inured to bad results, accepting low standards as normal, says one of the nation's leading teachers.
	6	Leading teacher helped Sudanese A West Australian teacher who bridged cultural divides between Sudanese students and their school and local community has won the country's highest teaching award.
	15 Letters	More to a good schools policy than teacher-bashing Three letters.
Financial Review www.afr.com
Herald Sun www.heraldsun.com.au	24	Teacher ban after kisses A teacher who kissed a student and told her 'I love you' has been deregistered by the Victorian Institute of Teaching.
	34	Another Catholic school drug shock At least two students at a Melbourne Catholic school are being investigated over alleged possession of drugs.
	41	TV show lures tardy students An outer suburban primary school has come up with a novel way to fight lateness: put your students on TV – writes John Masanauskas.
	51	The real game boy A Year 7 Mentone Grammar student is getting ready to release his second computer game.

