

Friday, 6 November 2009

Paper	Page (s)	Headline/Summary
The Age www.theage.com.au	1	College collapses hit VCE Four private colleges in Melbourne and Sydney have collapsed, leaving about 2000 students stranded.
	3	Federal advisor urges stimulus rethink The Chairman of the Productivity Commission has urged the Australian Government to rethink its stimulus spending, particularly on schools and infrastructure, now that the economic crisis is over.
	6	Report cards on Victorian schools a first Victorian schools will have their performance data published on a new website, with information on non-government schools being released in January.
	6	Reading wars over: Gillard Minister Julia Gillard has claimed that the new national curriculum will feature grammar and phonics.
	6	Fewer view Melbourne University an ideal model The number of students choosing the University of Melbourne as their first preference has declined sharply.
	6	Teachers, students stunned as hotel school closes (See The Age , pg 1).
	12 Letters	Abstract rankings Delusional gamble
The Australian www.theaustralian.com.au	1 + 8	Rudd told to rethink stimulus (See The Age , pg 3).
	2	Foreign students in limbo (See The Age , pg 1).
	3	Schools rated on students' progress (See The Age , pg 6).
Financial Review www.afr.com
Herald Sun www.heraldsun.com.au	11	Fact check for parents (See The Age , pg 6).
	19	College failure hits 2000 foreign students (See The Age , pg 1).

39

Sell old school sites

The Victorian Government has made more that $70 million from the sale of closed school sites in the past five years, according to an analysis of annual reports.

46 Editorial

Report Card a plus for parents

