

Monday, 26 October 2009

| Paper | Page (s) | Headline/Summary |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| The Age www.theage.com.au | 6 | Gillard to meet school principals Education Minister Julia Gillard will bring 150 school principals to Canberra next month to discuss how the government can help them to improve educational standards. |
| | 6 | Teachers set to give indigenous kids a good start The first students have completed a Victorian Government scheme to get more indigenous teachers into early childhood education. |
| | 10 ...And another thing | State politics 1 letter What's more 1 letter |
| | 12 Education Liftout (EL) Notebook | Teachers 'not taught' Teachers in the United States have complained about a lack of preparation for the profession in American colleges. |
| | 12 EL Notebook | All in the running The Special School Cross Country Event was held last week. |
| | 12 EL | Mature age students a class act Among the thousands lining up for VCE exams is an older but very determined contingent – writes Elisabeth Tarica. |
| | 13 EL | Call to schools: open your books Finding out where school fees go can be a frustrating process for parents – writes Caroline Milburn. |
| The Australian www.theaustralian.com.au | 1 & 6 | Aboriginal leaders seek curriculum role Indigenous leaders have been angered by a lack of consultation in the development of the national school curriculum. |
| | 3 | Dangers at play in uniform preschool learning A professor of early childhood education has expressed concern that some childcare centres were offering a school-based curriculum. |
| | 6 | Calls to expel failed heads, not students An organisation that educates difficult students has called for the onus to be put on principals and the education system to ensure that children succeed at school. |
| | 6 | School principals to have say (See The Age , pg 6). |
| | 15 Letters | Teachers need the right stuff |

| | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Financial Review www.afr.com | 27 EL | Unis intensify private donations push Universities are increasing fund-raising efforts as they struggle to make ends meet with government funding. |
| Herald Sun www.heraldsun.com.au | 6 | Gillard invites principals to talk (See The Age , pg 6). |

