

Wednesday, 4 November 2009

Paper	Page (s)	Headline/Summary
The Age www.theage.com.au	8 14 Letters	Students demand halt Victorian Arts Minister Lynne Kosky will this morning be handed a 1700 strong petition by students from the Victorian College of the Arts. Aiming for the best
The Australian www.theaustralian.com.au	1 + 4 3 4 5 26 Higher Education Lift-out (HEL) 27 (HEL) 30 (HEL)	18.5bn costs blowout School infrastructure funding will be pushed back 12 months to the 2011-12 financial year. Kids encouraged to play now or pay later A psychologist has warned that children who are not encouraged to play are at greater risk of developing depression. School buildings to hit deadline Most school infrastructure projects are expected to meet the original deadline of March 2011. Levies rise to cover college collapses The Education Services for Overseas Students Assurance Fund will raise its general levy on education providers in 2010. New relief for rural students Support has emerged for a special rural students' tertiary access fund. Monash plans to expand Monash University has flagged a potential 10,000 student expansion at its Berwick campus. 'Residence' lure rorts students We need to decouple the link between international students and the granting of permanent residency – writes Kelvin Thomson.
Financial Review www.afr.com
Herald Sun www.heraldsun.com.au	33 Letters	Graphic decline in education

